

Post-2015 On-the-Ground Shared Framework
Portfolio Review
January 13, 2016
OSF New York, Room 1AB

Breakfast and coffee will be served beginning at 9:00AM

Moderator: Dan Sershen

9:30-9:45AM: Welcome, Introductions, and Agenda Overview

9:45-10:30AM: What happened during the shared framework?
Participants will be asked to share their initial reactions to the materials provided.

Presenter: Pedro Abramovay

Discussants: Chris Stone and Jim Goldston

10:30-11:30AM: Bridging the Gap Between On-the-Ground and New York
In what ways did collaboration between the Global Advocacy and country teams reinforce each other's work? What might have strengthened this collaboration?

Presenter: Betsy Apple

Discussant: Natalie Jaynes

11:30-11:45AM: Coffee Break
Coffee and snacks will be provided.

11:45AM-12:30PM: How did we continue to advance the goals of the shared framework in the face of changes in the landscape?
What does it mean for program work to support the shared framework goals versus simply align with them? How did this shift over the course of the shared framework?

Presenter: Vonda Brown

Discussant: Neetu Pokharel

12:45-1:30PM: Final Reflections

Presenter: Pedro Abramovay

Discussants: Chris Stone, Jim Goldston

1:30-2:00PM:

Lunch Break

2:00-3:00PM:

What comes after the shared framework?

In this optional session, shared framework participants can discuss what work they will be carrying forward in their 2016 strategies and what form of collaboration, if any, would be beneficial to have.