

Appendix III

Outreach: Stakeholders' Trainings and Advocacy

Mekelle University:

- 2012- For teachers - on Climate Affairs - 30 participants;
- 2013 - For development agents and district agricultural experts on CCA - 21 participants;
 - journalists and civic society members - 22 participants;
- 2014 - For pastoral and agropastoral communities - 23 participants.

University of Dar es Salaam:

- 2012 - Public dialogue on Genetically Modified Organisms (GMO) as an option for Climate Change Adaptation in Agriculture sector - 33 participants;
- 2013 - Conference on Challenges of Urbanization and Development of Africa - 320 participants;
 - Dialogues - climate change, wild life and pastoral communities - 120 participants;
 - International Africa Climate Conference - scientists, researchers, media, communities, etc. - 378 participants;
- 2014 - short courses for geography teachers - 45 participants;
 - project management for government staff - 19 participants;
- 2015 - Africa Climate Talks - 400 participants;
 - EU Climate Day - 274 participants.

University of Ghana:

- 2011 - awareness raising events at different levels and to different audiences - around 450 people plus 10 communities;
- 2013 - outreach training and policy advocacy strategy - 123 participants;
- 2014 - awareness raising with Methodist church - 300 people;
- 2015 - climate change education of youth - 300 participants.

University of the Witwatersrand:

- 2014 - Climate Change workshop – 25 participants;
 - Energy - several workshops - 45 people;
 - Green Economy - exhibition;
- 2015- Energy/Emissions Pathway calculator tool workshop - 20 participants;
 - Statistics - over 100 people.

University of Nigeria, Nsukka:

- 2014 - To farmers - 15 people;
 - Media programs: Tv and radio discussions;
 - Civil society dialogue - 23 people.